

Good evening everyone, we are so glad you joined the on-line meeting of _____ “_____”. My name is _____ I’m an _____.

1. This is a closed meeting of Alcoholics Anonymous. In support of A.A.’s singleness of purpose, attendance at closed meetings is limited to persons who have a desire to stop drinking. If you think you have a problem with alcohol, you are welcome. We ask that when discussing our problems, we confine ourselves to those problems as they relate to alcoholism. Please mute yourself at this time if you’re not sharing to keep down the background noise. We have found the Serenity prayer & the Lords prayer work better with everyone muted.
2. We will open the meeting with a moment of silence; then join me in the Serenity Prayer. (mute all)
God grant me the serenity to accept the things I cannot change, courage to change the things I can and the wisdom to know the difference.
3. (read) A.A. Preamble
4. A suggestion to the newcomer on anonymity:
Who you see here, what you hear here, when you leave here, let it stay here
5. (read) How It Works
6. (read) The Promises
7. Do we have any Newcomers? (ask willing AA members to private chat the newcomer their phone number) (ask the newcomer to write down the numbers) (send newcomer link to Tri-county) Do we have any guest that want to be recognized?
8. Are there any Birthdays
9. Are there any AA announcements?
10. We have our group conscience meeting on the _____ of every month.
If you would like to make this your home group, please private chat me.
11. In keeping with tradition 7 would you please contribute via _____; the instructions should be on the screen, newcomers need not contribute.
12. Introduce your speaker, read from the big book or 12x12 etc.
13. We will open the meeting up for discussion. Un-mute to share.
14. Thank you for taking the action of joining us tonight and we thank you for the wonderful shares.
15. If you don’t have a sponsor please private chat me your name and phone # and I’ll have a willing AA member call you.
16. We will close the meeting in the usual manner with the Lords Prayer, or whatever your group closes with (mute all)
